The event will provide you with the opportunity to learn more about Guildhall with our regular City Guide Jill Finch while getting to know other future Consorts. Spaces are strictly limited, once the tour places are allocated, lunch only places will be allocated. Lunch and tour costs £90 per person, lunch only costs £80 per person. We expect to have some lunch places available to other members next week, please check the website if you would like to attend.

Worshipful Company of Spectacle Makers: Have extended an invitation to City Consorts members to their annual lecture on 16th May 18.00-20.30. The short talks include general eye health and vision so relevant to everyone. This is being held at the Governors' Hall at St Thomas' Hospital.

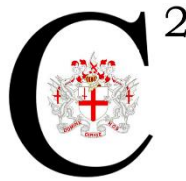

Jigsaw Program: The popular jigsaw 'putting the pieces in place' program runs 3 times a year, if you miss a session, you or want to hear one again you can dip in and out. The next program starts on 7th June and will run once weekly for 6 weeks from 09.30-10.45 approx. Sessions last 60-90 minutes depending on time allowed for questions and conversation. Please book your screen in the usual way through the events pages. This program is invaluable for future Consorts, topics include the Lord Mayor, the Sheriffs & the City, the City of London Corporation and Guildhall, Traditions, Pageants and Ceremonies, dress codes, inviting, thanking, attending events and much more. The sessions will be informal and interactive and also enable you to meet other Consorts from your year.
