

Glenn Hursfield

Glenn is Consort to Alderman and Sheriff Alison Gowman during her year in office as Sheriff of the City of London 2021-22.

Glenn was born and raised in Liverpool where his mother was a headmistress and his father an engineer. Glenn graduated with a First Class Law degree from Liverpool University and became one of the first non-Oxbridge students to be offered Articles at Coward Chance (now the mighty Clifford Chance) which he joined in 1982.

Glenn's field of expertise encompassed national and international private client work from which he retired in 2019.

He met Alison when he and his team moved from Clifford Chance to Alsop Wilkinson (now DLA Piper) in 1991 and he has been Alison's Consort throughout her Aldermanic tenure and also for the years she served as Master Glover and Master Plaisterer. Glenn is himself a member of the Worshipful Company of Glaziers and Painters of Glass where he is the Honorary Solicitor and Court Assistant.

Glenn's particular interests are history and the Performing Arts and he sits on a number of charitable boards which support these institutions as well as chairing an annual country house opera festival in Hampshire. He has also been a member of the Development Team of the Sheriffs and Recorder's Fund for many years"
